

Good Response To Sponsored Hill Event

THERE has been a good response to the call for stretcher bearers to take part in a sponsored climb of Bennachie on Sunday.

Two teams are lined up to carry Neil Watt of Kennethmont and Paul Dunbar of Inverurie to the top of the hill in separate climbs at 9.30 a.m. and 1.30 p.m. Both lads are wheelchair-bound and are tremendously excited at the prospect of seeing the view from the top and are hoping for a fine clear day.

Members of the public are invited to join the climbs which will start at the Rowantree Car Park. Members of the Bailies of Bennachie, the Garioch Hillwalking Club, Inverurie Police, Inverurie Venture Scouts and Inverurie Health Centre are taking part in the project and have been collecting donations for Muscular Dystrophy Research. Further gifts of money can be given to Inspector Ken Duguid at the Inverurie Police office; the Health Centre to Dr. Jim Black; Mr James Mackay at the Academy or to Mr Bill Henderson, Chairman of the Hillwalking Club.

After all the excitement a
