

9/153 - 114
original in archive cupboard

9/153

CHARITY WALKER

● Multiple Sclerosis and the Make a Wish foundation were presented with a £500 cheque by Levena Taylor of Inverurie School of Dance before the Bennachie Strecher Carry last Sunday. The picture shows (left to right) Edith Mowatt of Make a Wish, Allyson Wallace and Levena Taylor.

● The Inverurie ATC team are well equipped for the climb.

S ON BENNA CHIE

● Up, up and away. Multiple Sclerosis sufferer Allyson Wallace of Balmedie, leaves the Rowantree car park on this year's Bennachie Stretcher Carry.

Only at the
INVERURIE HERALD

will you find professional

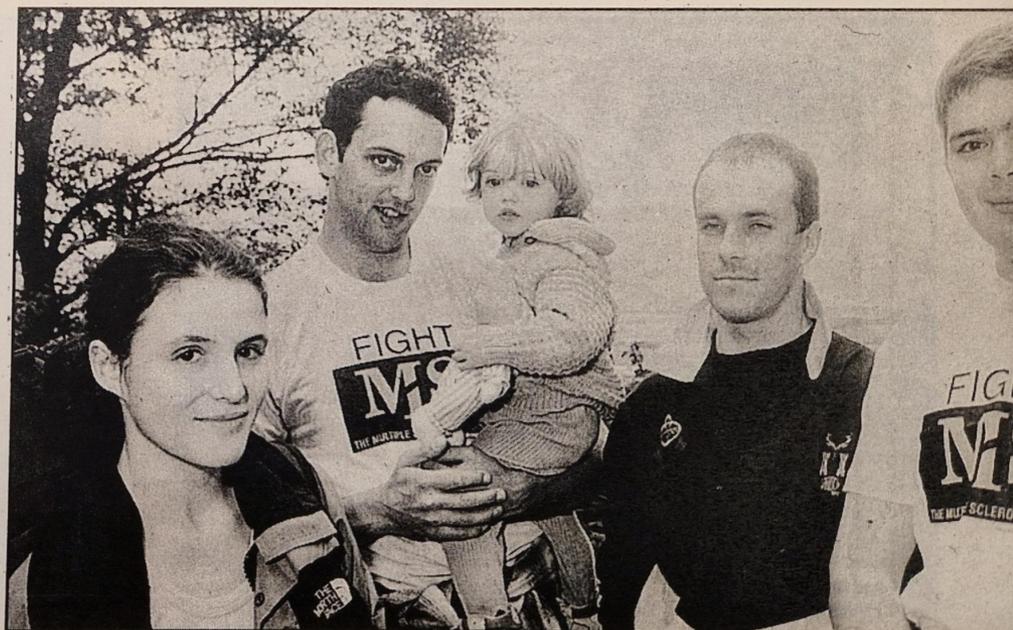

● The stretcher carry team negotiate some of the obstacles on the route to Mither Tap.

● Lining up for their photocall are members of the Garioch Lions' team, who help stretcher Allyson to the summit.

Copies of photographs in this special Herald feature on the walk up Bennachie can be arranged by contacting our office at 21a Market Place, Inverurie. Tel: 625150

Members of the Garioch Rugby Team – and friends – pose for the camera before taking their turn at a hand up the hill.

Only at the
INVERURIE HERALD
 will you find professional photographers dedicated to providing a reliable, first-class service. If you would like to call upon the skills of our men with the lens, or would like to order
 re-prints, give The Herald
 a call at Inverurie 625150

● The Stecher Carry makes its way to Mither Tap high above the Garioch farmland.

● Allyson with Edith Mowatt, co-ordinator of the Make a Wish Foundation, checking out the choice of routes to the top of Bennachie.

● Allyson is made a Bailie of Bennachie. Bailie James McKay presents Allyson with her Bailie's badge.