Alford balladeers on song

WINNERS of the Bailies of Bennachie Ballad competition were Alford Academy, whose music teacher, Mrs Maureen McDougal, receives the prizewinner's cheque from Senior Bailie Mr James MacKay at the annual general meeting of the Bailies at Inverurie Academy last night. Alford Academy and Daviot Primary School pupils look on.

BETWEEN 200 and 300 people attended a concert at Inverurie Academy last night to hear the prizewinners in the Bailies Ballad competition, organised by the Bailies of Bennachie.

Prizewinners included: Doric lyrical ballads — Dr Ken Morrice; Doric narrative ballads — Prof. Duncan Menzie; songs — Mrs Jane Murray; English verse — Mrs Sheena Kelman.

In the schools section winners were: ballads — William McNamara, Beechwood School, Aberdeen; songs with music — Alford Academy; primary school songs — Daviot Primary A team.
